Travel Agent Education

Travel Agent Career Program

Travel is, of course, one of the widely utilized and largest businesses in the world today. The travel industry includes a host of various businesses such as airline companies, rail services, international hotel chains, cruise lines, international theme parks, tour operators, and our neighborhood travel agency. As a result, the field of travel can be both exciting and rewarding. Careers in travel continue to be in demand as all forms of transportation are experiencing growth.

This 52 hour program will provide you with the newest information in the travel industry and will also prepare you to take the Travel Career Development Test offered by the ICTA (Institute of Certified Travel Agents).

A certificate of completion for the travel agent program will be issued to those individuals who successfully complete the program.

The Travel Career Development Program consists of the following seven courses:

- Introduction to Travel and Tourism
- Air Travel
