PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Fire Science Administration option is intended for those who seek to transfer to a four year institution for the purpose of earning a Bachelor of Science in Fire Science. The program adheres to the core requirements of the Dept. of Homeland Security guidelines for fire science in the Fire and Emergency Service Higher Education (FESHE) model curriculum. Students completing this program may also earn certifications in Fire Code Enforcement. Students transferring to a four year school offering a bachelor of Fire Science will be entering the third year program and will have the ability to complete the degree on a four year plan.

PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the program, the graduate will be able to:

1. Explain the method by which fire and building codes enhance fire prevention and overall safety to building occupants.
2. Discuss how organization structure in a fire department is used to deliver effective services for prevention, suppression and emergency operations.
3. Understand the key benefits for investigating fire losses and how that applies to legal requirements under state law.
4. Demonstrate knowledge of hazard and risk exposure caused by fire and the methods used by management for effectively controlling this exposure to avoid or minimize unnecessary safety and health risks.
