PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Camden County College music program delivers a curriculum of written, aural and piano theory designed to help each student develop mature skills in analysis, composition and ear training.

In addition, after three semesters of ensemble performance and private lessons, each student participates in the development and implementation of a music recital.

PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the program, the graduate will be able to:

1. Perform, analyze, dictate and discuss an advanced repertoire of music.
2. Perform in piano, choir and ensemble.
3. Present a collegiate recital showcasing a variety of music and techniques.
4. Explain and apply music theory.
