One of the most important skills you can learn in college is how to get help when you need it and where you can find resources to help you succeed. Camden County College has many resources to support your learning and your success.

ADVISING – Advisors can help you decide on a major; identify which courses to take; show you how to create your schedule and look up your grades; help you identify your goals and accept academic challenges; assist you with academic probation; and answer general questions and concerns [Blackwood: Otto R. Mauke Community Center, room 100, (856) 227-7200, ext. 4454; Camden: ext. 1325; William G. Rohrer Center: room 112, (856) 874-6000].

CENTER FOR DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING STUDENTS – Support services for deaf and hard of hearing students include advisement; transition counseling; interpreting; note taking; C-Print captioning; assistive listening devices; tutoring; and financial aid assistance [Kathy Earp, Blackwood: Community Center, room 100, (856) 227-7200, ext. 4506].

CHILD CARE – Child care and preschool services are offered on the Blackwood Campus through Kiddie Junction [Beth Malpass, (856) 227-7787].

CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES – Clubs, organizations and special interest groups chartered through the CCC Student Council are a way for you to feel connected to campus life, to develop friendships and to engage in enjoyable activities that support your interests [Office of Student Life, Community Center, room 200, (856) 227-7200, ext. 5088].

COMPUTER LABS – CCC has open access computer labs at all three locations [Blackwood: Library, 3rd floor; Camden Campus: E-Village, room 202; Rohrer Center: E-Library, room 208].

DISABILITY SERVICES – Self-help support for students with learning and/or physical disabilities includes course advisement, academic counseling and program accommodations to help students advocate for themselves [Joanne Kinzy, Community Center, room 100, (856) 227-7200, ext. 4430].

EMPLOYMENT – The Student Employment Office provides on-campus employer recruitment and job fairs, job postings and placement, and career information [Community Center, room 101A.2, (856) 227-7200, ext. 4268].

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS/ESL – Advisors can help international students with required paperwork, academic advisement, course selection and resources for work and residence, and more. CCC offers an extensive ESL (English as a Second Language) program of courses, too [Blackwood: Office of International Student Services (856) 374-4861; Camden Campus: Deidre Gray, (856) 227-7200, ext. 1311].

TESTING – The Testing Center provides prospective and current students with a secure site for placement tests, makeup tests, tests for on-line and other distance learning courses, other types of tests such as AP exams, tests for prior learning credit, English department final exams and career assessment tools [Blackwood: Library 2nd floor, (856) 227-7200, ext. 4710; Camden Campus: College Hall, room 117, (856) 968-1287; Rohrer Center: room 104, schedule via (856) 227-7200, ext. 4710].

TUTORING – All students are eligible for free tutoring services available on all three campuses on a walk-in basis. Hours are posted on the CCC website each semester. Students in reading, writing, math, or ESL courses can access additional learning labs. [Blackwood: Library 3rd floor, (856) 227-7200, ext. 4276; Camden Campus: College Hall, room 514C, (856) 968-1359; Rohrer Center: E-Library, (856)-874-6001].
