Awarding Parameters

Camden County College required students to complete an online application asking them to identify areas of need that they had experienced due to the campus disruption related to COVID-19. Once the application was received it was screen in accordance to the Department of Education guidance provided at the time of review. Student who met all the parameters were awarded $1000 if they were enrolled more than 6 credits in the Spring 2020 semesters or $500 if they were enrolled in 1-5 credits. The same set of awarding parameters were used for the first two rounds of CARES grant awarding with the exception that students registered for Summer were also considered.
