In order to be eligible for a federal Direct loan, I understand that I must:

- complete a Loan Entrance Interview
- complete a Direct Loan Master Promissory Note (MPN)
- matriculate in an eligible degree or certificate program
- enroll for at least six credits (half time) per semester
- attend at least half time (six credits) until the conclusion of the semester in order to remain eligible
- maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress
- Not be in default on a previous student loan
- Not have exceeded my borrowing limits for federal loans

Loans are disbursed beginning mid-October for fall and mid-March for spring; AND all registered courses must have begun. All loans are divided into equal disbursements between fall and spring semesters unless otherwise indicated by the anticipated graduation date or student’s actual enrollment. Students who are graduating after fall semester will have their loan prorated. A prorated loan will equal one-half -or less- of the annual loan amount, and will be calculated based upon your eligibility.
