BYLAWS

CAMDEN COUNTY COLLEGE FOUNDATION

ARTICLE I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1.  Citation of Authority.  These bylaws are adopted, and may from time to time be amended, as provided by the New Jersey Nonprofit Corporation Act, N.J.S.A. 15A1-1 et.seq.

Section 2.  Effective Date.  These bylaws shall take effect immediately upon adoption, and shall remain in effect until repealed or superseded. Amendments to provisions of these bylaws will take effect immediately upon adoption, unless a later date is specified in the proposal to amend.

Section 3.  Amendment Procedure.  These bylaws may be amended at any annual, regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors by majority vote of the Directors. Proposals to amend these bylaws may be made by any Director. Notice of any such proposal shall be set forth in the notice of the meeting. If the proponent of an amendment wishes to submit comments on the proposal for consideration by the Board, such comments shall be included in the notice of the meeting.

Section 4.  Construction.  Words used herein shall have their ordinary customary meaning unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context. The use of masculine pronouns is for convenience only, and shall refer to both genders, and where appropriate, the singular shall include the plural. Should any provision of these bylaws be deemed inconsistent with the New Jersey Non Profit Corporation Act, the County College Act, the Certificate of Incorporation of this organization, or applicable provisions of general law, said authorities shall control. Should any provision of these bylaws be determined invalid, such determination shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions.

ARTICLE II
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Composition of the Board. In accordance with the Articles of Incorporation, the Board of Directors shall be composed of between 9 and 25 members, which number shall be determined by the Board from time to time.

Section 2. Election of the Board. The Directors of the Foundation shall be elected in the following manner:

a) The President of Camden County College shall be a Director;

b) Three (3) members of the Board of Trustees of Camden County College, who shall be elected by the College Board of Trustees at their annual meeting or until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

c) The balance shall be elected by majority vote from business, civic, scientific, cultural, educational, social, and professional leaders in the community. They shall serve for two-year terms.

Section 3. Powers and Duties of the Board. The Board of Directors shall have and exercise those powers and duties conferred by the New Jersey Nonprofit Corporation Act, by the Foundation’s Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, as well as by general law. It shall manage the property, affairs, business and concerns of the Foundation.

Section 4. Executive Committee. The four officers (Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, Treasurer, and Secretary) serve as members of the Executive Committee. The President of Camden County College will serve as an ex officio member of the Executive Committee as will the Executive Director. Except for the power to amend the articles of incorporation and bylaws, and subject to the direction and control of the full Board, the Executive Committee shall have all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the intervals between meetings of the Board of Directors or at the call of the Chairperson as its workload requires. A majority of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum.
Section 5. Standing Committees. The standing committees of the Foundation shall be: The Executive Committee and the Finance/Investment Committee.

Section 6. Finance/Investment Committee. The Treasurer is the chair of the Finance/Investment Committee. The Committee is responsible for developing and reviewing: fiscal procedures, investment activities, and annual budget with staff and other board members. The Board must approve the budget and all expenditures must be within the budget. The fiscal year shall be July 1 through June 30. Annual reports are to be submitted to the Board showing income and expenditures. The financial records of the organization are public information and shall be made available to the Board and the public.

Section 7. Ad Hoc Committees. Whenever it shall appear advisable, the Chairperson may appoint an Ad Hoc Committee for such terms as may be desired, and may assign to it such duties as may be appropriate.

Section 8. Indemnification of Directors. The Foundation shall indemnify all Directors from and against all liability expenses (including attorneys’ fees) judgment costs, and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which they may have become a party by reason of their being or having been a Director of the Foundation, provided that such Director acted in good faith, within the scope of his authority, and in a manner that he reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the Foundation.

Section 9. Limitation of Liability. In the absence of fraud or bad faith, no Director shall be personally liable for the debts, obligations or liabilities of the Foundation.

ARTICLE III

BOARD MEETINGS

Section 1. Regular, Special, and Annual Meetings. The Board of Directors shall meet at such times and places as it deems advisable to transact its business, including the adoption of policies, commitment of funds, delegation of duties to officers and employees, and any other action necessary or proper to carry out Foundation purposes.

a) Regular meetings of the Board shall be held at least quarterly, on a schedule to be determined at the annual meeting.

b) Special meetings may be called by the Chairperson, or by written request of any three Directors.

c) An annual meeting of the Board shall be held for the purpose of electing Directors and officers of the Foundation for the following year, presenting the Annual Report, and transacting any other necessary or proper business.

Section 2. Notice of Meetings. An official board meeting requires that each board member have written notice at least two weeks in advance.

Section 3. Quorum. A simple majority shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. No business shall be transacted without a quorum being present. Except as otherwise specified in these bylaws, the act of a majority of Directors attending any meeting of the Board of Directors shall be the act of the Board. In the event that a quorum is not present, the Chairperson may call the roll and declare the meeting adjourned.

Section 4. Annual Report. The Chairperson shall present at the Annual Meeting of the Foundation, an Annual Report, verified by the Treasurer, or by a majority of the Directors, showing the whole amount of real and personal property owned by the Foundation, where located, and where and how invested; the amount and nature of the property acquired during the year immediately preceding the date of the report, and the manner of acquisition; the amount applied, appropriated, or expended during the year immediately preceding such date, and the purposes, objects, or persons to or for which such applications, appropriations or expenditures were made; and the names and places of residence of all Directors of the Foundation during such year. The annual report shall be a public record, filed with the records of the Foundation and an abstract thereof entered in the minutes of the Annual Meeting. In addition, a summary of the Annual Report will be prepared for public distribution.
Section 5. Teleconference Meeting. Any or all Directors may participate in a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board by means of conference telephone or other communication by which all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear each other.

Section 6. Voting. Voting shall not be by proxy. Unless otherwise specifically required by these bylaws, all actions shall be taken by majority vote of those Directors present at the meeting or participating via teleconference. Voting shall be by formal motion made and seconded or by informal consensus provided that the question being decided is clearly understood and expressed.

Section 7. Minutes. Minutes of each meeting shall be kept by the Recording Secretary and shall include a fair summary of every action taken. Minutes of each meeting shall be presented at the next meeting for review, either orally or in writing, and may be declared approved as presented or as corrected, as the case may be, by the Chairperson after such review.

Section 8. Robert's Rules of Order. Where the New Jersey Nonprofit Corporation Act, the Certificate of Incorporation, or these bylaws make no specific provision, the latest edition of “Robert’s Rules of Order” shall govern the conduct of Board meetings.

Section 9. Parliamentary Authority. A Parliamentarian may be appointed by the Chairperson to hold office for up to three years. The duties of the Parliamentarian shall be (a) to advise the Chairperson on parliamentary procedure, and (b) to serve as Parliamentarian for the meetings of the Camden County College Foundation. The Parliamentarian may be asked to serve as a consultant to any standing or special committee. The Parliamentarian may be re-appointed.
